

Ph.D. BOGUSŁAW JAN BEMBEN
conductor

Bogusław Jan Bemben was born in Cracow, Poland. Graduated as a Symphony and Opera Conductor at the Karol Szymanowski Academy of Music in Katowice in Composition, Interpretation, Education and Jazz Department, after studies with Prof. Jan Wincenty Hawel. A Doctor of Philosophy in conducting from the Academy of Music in Cracow under the instruction of Prof. Mirosław Jacek Błaszczyk.

Bemben has participated in International Masterclasses with: Gabriel Chmura, Paul Esswood, Colin Metters, Helmuth Rilling, and Jerzy Salwarowski.

In May 2012, Mr. Bemben was the participant in the Malko International Conducting Competition in Copenhagen, one of the most important competition for conductors, where he conducted the Danish National Symphony Orchestra.

He worked with professional ensembles in Poland and internationally, such as Cracow Philharmonic Orchestra, Silesian Philharmonic Orchestra in Katowice, Dolnośląska Philharmonic Orchestra in Jelenia Góra, Opole Philharmonic Orchestra, Zielona Góra Philharmonic Orchestra, Sudecka Philharmonic Orchestra in Wałbrzych, Częstochowa Philharmonic Orchestra, Tychy Chamber Orchestra AUKSO, Cracow Chamber Opera, Arte Creatura Music Theater.

Ph.D. Bogusław Jan Bemben is an Assistant Professor at the University of Silesia in Katowice, Faculty of Fine Arts and Music.

<http://bjbemben.wixsite.com/bjbemben>