Salerno, July 16th 2016

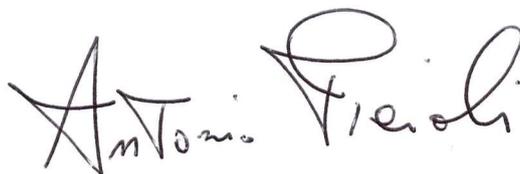

I was at "Jan Albrecht Music and Art Academy" – Banska Stiavnica (Slovakia) from April 20th to April 23rd 2016. I had wonderful days at "Jan Albrecht Music and Art Academy" where I taught in a chamber music workshop and I performed in a concert.

The chamber music workshop has been very interesting for me: I appreciated the good level of the students who have worked with great enthusiasm. They played different repertoires, showing good interpretive flexibility. They also performed in a concert at the end of the activities.

My concert, scheduled on April 23rd, has been very enjoyable for me: I performed different repertoires (including a my composition) with different ensembles: clarinet and guitar – clarinet, viola and piano – clarinet and jazz trio. All the musicians who played with me are wonderful interpreters! Easy to play with them.

All activities were perfectly organized and coordinated by Prof. PhDr. Zuzana Martinakova. Institutional coordinator of the Academy.

I hope we can continue the collaboration between my institution ("Giuseppe Martucci" Conservatoire in Salerno, Italy) and the "Jan Albrecht Music and Art Academy". It can be a good opportunity for our students and my colleagues to discover an academy of high music level in which you are welcomed like in a family. I also hope to welcome students from "Jan Albrecht Music and Art Academy" – Banska Stiavnica in Salerno Conservatoire.
