I was a guest Erasmus on 8th-9th and 10th May 2015 at the Hudobná a umelecká akadémia Jána Albrechta in Banská Štiavnica (Slovakia).

I have been welcomed there by the Director Prof. Dr. Zuzana Martináková and by my excellent colleague Prof. Adam Marec who made me feel like in my family. Because of this excellent condition, I could work with students very well. I'm sure I did a great job with them because I have had the opportunity to better show them, the XIXth century Italian guitar repertoire. I had a concert on 9th May, organized in an excellent location from Zuzana Martináková, in a charming Old Castle where a very attentive and receptive audience listened me .

I recommend both teachers strongly to be guests at the akadémia Jána Albrechta, where they will undoubtedly warm welcome and gracefully. It will be a fun way to work, like being on vacation: I hope to come back sooner. I will never cease to thank the director whom I warmly congratulate.

Best regards
